

Mike Adams is the host of the Eastern Idaho political radio show, “Idaho Up Close.” He grew up in Pocatello, Idaho and attended Idaho State University. He began his radio career at the age of 17 and has worked for radio stations in Idaho, Utah and Washington. He owned and operated the Preston, Idaho station (KACH) for fifteen years.

Brother Adams has been heavily involved in Idaho politics; he has served as the press secretary to an Idaho Governor and an Idaho Congressman. He was also the campaign manager in three Congressional elections and was a Regional Advisory Board member for an Idaho Senator. He also served for many years as a member of the Idaho GOP State Committee.

Brother Adams is the Vice President of Tri-Star Broadcasting and served for five years on the Public Relations Committee for the Grand Teton Council for Boy Scouts of America.