

RHONDA M. Lyman

505 E. 2nd S.

Rexburg, Idaho, 83440

(208) 359-2346

OBJECTIVE

Home Economics Education

EDUCATION

Oregon State University.

Doctorate Degree in Cultural/Historic Aspects of the Near Environment with a minor in Education. Degree in progress.

Dissertation: Not presently titled.

Brigham Young University.

Master's Degree in Home Economics Education with an emphasis in Clothing and Textiles. Kappa Omnicron Nu. (August, 1994)

Thesis: "The Effect of Teachers' Clothing on Behavior of 7th Grade Students".

Bachelor's degree in Home Economics with a Secondary Teaching and Vocational Credential. (August, 1987)

Bingham High School.

Emphasis in accounting and English. Activities included: drama, music, FHA, pep club, etc. (May, 1966)

EXPERIENCE

Brigham Young University -Idaho (Aug. 2001 to present), Ricks College.

(Professor)

Teaching assignment includes: Beginning Clothing Construction; Clothing Construction Skill Building Techniques; Introduction to Fashion Merchandising; Textile Chemistry; Fitting, Alterations and Intermediate Construction; Careers in Clothing and Textiles; Resources in Home Management; Money Management; Visual Merchandising; Textile Design; Methods for FCS Secondary Education; Curriculum Development for FCS Secondary Education. Advisor to students majoring in Clothing and Textiles, Fashion Design and Production and Fashion Merchandising enrolled in "After A Fashion". Advisor to students majoring in FCS Secondary Education. Have led student trips to England, France, Italy, Greece and Egypt where emphasis has been placed on historical clothing and textiles. Have produced seven fashion shows with various emphases including cultural and historical. Have produced costumes used in these productions. Curriculum developed for new classes in Visual Merchandising and Textile Design. Lab book developed for Textile Chemistry. Textile Chemistry correspondence class developed for use at BYU and BYU-I. (August, 1993 to present)

Oregon State University.

(Graduate Assistant)

Teaching assignment included: Textile Chemistry and Forecasting Fashion. The curriculum for Forecasting Fashion was developed and taught by me for the first time at the University

(September, 1999 to June, 2000)

Z.C.M.I.

(Retail Sales)

Retail sales as a flyer in the following departments; Jrs., Lingerie, Fashion Accessories, Hosiery, Jewelry, Sportswear, Luggage, Toys, Books, Stationery, Domestics, Men's Clothing, and Children's Clothing.

(May, 1996 to January, 1997)

After A Fashion.

(Designer, Production, and Director)

Designed 1700's and 1950's costumes for fashion show presented by the club at the Ricks College sponsored show held during "Women's Week".

(March, 1996)

Showtime Company.

(Designer and Production)

Designed and constructed costumes for Rick's College Showtime Company production group.

(1995 Season)

Brigham Young University.

(Graduate Assistant)

Instructor in College of Education, Secondary Education. Supervised home economics education and business education students who were teaching in the public school system. Worked with the Utah State Department of Education. Instructed students in the Food and Nutrition Meal Management Lab.

(1992 - 1993)

Developed curriculum for correspondence class for Textiles Chemistry. Class is slated to be put on the net in the future.

(2001)

Granite School District, Kearns Junior High.

(Teacher)

Taught seventh, eighth and ninth grade Home Economics, classes included all areas of home economics and a vocational-occupational business experience class.

(1989 - 1992)

Granite School District, Eisenhower Junior High.

(Teacher)

Teacher in Special Education and Resource Department for 7th, 8th, and 9th grade students.

(1988 - 1989)

Self-Employed, Spanish Fork, Utah.

(Crafts Manufacturer)

Started cottage industry while living in Camarillo, California, transferred business to Utah. Designed, created and marketed, quiet books, dolls and doll clothes, wall hangings, Christmas decorations, etc. Originally marketed through boutiques and gift shops, but in Utah most sales volume has been through Mormon Handicraft Store in Salt Lake City.

(1977 - 1996)

Santa Barbara Savings and Loan, Westlake Village, California. (Office Supervisor)
Small S & L Office. Performed all transactions including: daily balancing, opening new accounts, and performing teller duties. (1975 - 1976)

Zion's First National Bank, Provo, Utah. (Overdraft Secretary)
Began as teller with promotion to secretary for overdrafts and returned checks, also balanced bank's cash totals. (1971 - 1973)

European Exchange System, Munich, West Germany. (Operations Clerk)
Operated IBM keypunch and proof machine. (1970 - 1971)

First Security Operations Division, Salt Lake City, Utah. (Operator)
NCR proof machine operator. (1969 - 1970)

COMMUNITY

Parent, Teachers Association. Member for many years. Worked as room mother and teachers aid to help students learn how to read. President of PTA at Spanish Fork Intermediate School in 1986-1987.

SERVICE

American Cancer Society. National Cancer Prevention Survey II, a longitudinal study focusing on possible linkages between nutrition and cancer. Telephone surveyor.

Member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. Have held positions in the following roles: Member of presidency in Relief Society (women's organization) and Primary (organization for children); Pianist; Chorister; and teacher in Relief Society, Primary and Sunday School.

PRESENTATIONS

June, 1993. 4th Annual AHEA Pre-Convention Leadership Conference, sponsored by the Coalition for Black Development and the AHEA Foundation. "Finding the Person Inside".
National Convention, Orlando, Florida.

June, 1993. AHEA National Convention. "The Effect of Teachers Dress on the Behavior of 7th Grade Students. Orlando, Florida.

April 15, 1994. Utah Home Economics Association Annual Meeting. "Can Dress Make a Difference in What Students Learn in the Secondary Classroom?" Cedar City, Utah.

June 17, 1994. Western Region Home Economics Biannual Conference. "Teacher Dress as a Strategy for Discipline and Control." San Diego, California.

May 12, 1995. Utah Academy of Sciences, Arts and Letters. "Methods and Procedures for Conducting Research in the Classroom." Logan, Utah.

April 1995. Utah Home Economics Association Annual Meeting. "Can Conducting Research in Your Classroom Help You as a Teacher?"

June 1995. American Association of Family and Consumer Sciences. "The Effect of Teachers' Clothing on Discipline of 7th Graders." New Orleans, Louisiana.

June 1996. Ricks College Homemaking Conference, Family Science Workshop. "Classroom Techniques to Improve Your Teaching." Rexburg, Idaho.

February 1997. Delta Kappa Gamma, Alpha Beta Chapter. "Dressing to Control the Behavior in Your Classroom." Rexburg, Idaho.

June 2000. AAFCS Conference. "Educational Web Sites for Youth and Adults." Chicago, Ill.

Oct. 2002. Provo, Ut.

Nov. 2002. Utah Association of Family and Consumer Science. "Identifying needs for secondary teachers in the Home Economics arena in the Western U. S. for the next 5 years." Aspen Grove, Utah.

April 2003. AERA Conference. "Aggressive Solutions to the Problem of a Secondary Teacher Shortage. Chicago, Ill.

Nov. 2003. Utah Association of Family and Consumer Science. "Projected Teacher Positions for Family and Consumer Science Graduates Over The Next Five Years." Aspen Grove, Utah.

June, 2004. Senator representative for the state of Idaho to the national AAFCS conference. San Diego, CA.

June, 2006. Senator representative for the state of Idaho to the national AAFCS conference. Minneapolis, MN.

PUBLICATIONS

(1994). Teacher Dress as a Tool for Controlling the Classroom Behavior of Secondary Home Economics Students. Western Region Home Economics Biannual Conference Proceedings, 37-47.

(1994). Can Dress Make a Difference in What Students Learn in the Secondary Classroom. Utah Journal of Research in Home Economics, Volume 2, Number 1, 30-40.

(1995). Model For Conduction Research at the Secondary Level. Utah Journal of Research in Home Economics, Volume 3, Number 1, 35-49.

ORGANIZATIONS

Member of professional organizations: UEA, AEA, UHEA, AHEA, AAFCS, IDAFCS, ITAA and Kappa Omnicron Nu.

National Co-Chair, 4th Annual American Home Economics Association Pre-Convention Leadership Conference, sponsored by the Coalition for Black Development and the AHEA Foundation. National Convention, Orlando, Florida, June, 1993.

Elected as UHEA state board officer for position from 1993 to 1995. UHEA member of the Program of Work board. Chaired the Clothing and Textiles Division for UHEA.

Chair for the futuring committee of the Western Region Home Economics Biannual Conference, 1996.

AAFCS, National Clothing and Textiles Review Team, 1995.

AAFCS, National Clothing and Textiles Review Team, 1997.

AAFCS, Review Team, 1998.

IDAFCS, Organization team, South East representative, 2003-2008.

IDAFCS, Senate Representative, AAFCS Conference, San Diego, CA., June, 2004

Committee member Margaret Ritchie Distinguished Speaker Series, University of Idaho, September, 2004.