

BYRON WEBSTER

PO BOX 364 • REXBURG, IDAHO 83440
(208)-496-1343 • Email: websterb@byui.edu

Experience

- 2004 -Present
Brigham Young University - Idaho
Chair, Department of Home and Family
Faculty: courses in marriage, family, parenting
- 2003-04
Associate Dean, College of Education
Faculty: courses in marriage, family, parenting
- 2001-Present
Faculty - BYU – Idaho
Courses in marriage, family, parenting
- 1996-01
Faculty - Ricks College, courses in the Department of Family Living and Religion
- 1994-98
Marriage and Family Counselor - Contracted with the Youth and Family Renewal Center in Rexburg.
- 1978-94
Marriage and Family Counselor, Part-time
- 1978-94
Owner/manager of potato/grain farm in Madison County. I managed every aspect of the business – finances, purchasing, marketing, equipment repair, employees (hiring, training, supervising).
- 1976-78
Counselor/Teacher Human Values Institute
I established a counseling center; developed referral resources with health-care services,
attorneys, churches, and social service agencies;
counseled with individuals, couples, and families;
taught classes and workshops on interpersonal relationships.
- 1975-76
Part-time Teaching Ricks College
I taught four courses in Courtship & Marriage for Family Science Department.

Education

- 1976-Present
Education credits received at professional meetings and conferences
- 1974-75
Post-graduate clinical residency Marriage & Family
Consultation Center, Houston, Texas

1972-74

Brigham Young University
Master of Science Degree: April 1974
Major: Marriage & Family Counseling

1969-71

Brigham Young University
Bachelor of Science Degree: April 1972
Major: Political Science

1966-67

Ricks College
Major: General