
Director Interviews | Expectations10-31-2011

Overview

The opportunity to serve as a director in Student Support comes with great expectations but also provides great blessings as well. Please be aware of the following information prior to applying for.

Student Support Mission Statement

Support students as they prepare for, connect to and get involved in the BYU-Idaho disciple preparation center.

1. Have Fun

Involvement with Student Support will be a fun and personally rewarding experience for you. It's certainly not without pressures or demands, however, we promise you will learn, grow and develop new skills that will help you as you move forward with your life and in building the kingdom here upon the Earth.

2. It's Not About You!

Your volunteer service with Student Support is not about you. Rather, it is about the service you will give to others. Your role as a director is to enable the students you serve with to lead, guide, and direct others as they plan and organize programs and gatherings.

3. Prior Experience

Student directors normally have previous Student Support experience before being selected to serve.

4. Student Honor

Live with Student Honor! You are expected to abide by the CES Honor Code while exemplifying student honor through personal choices, example and daily conduct.

5. Devotional

Directors are expected to dress up and attend weekly devotional each Tuesday. You can help teach and influence others for good by inviting them to make weekly devotional attendance a pattern in their lives.

6. Additional Leadership/Volunteer Opportunities Outside Of Sse

Social and extracurricular activities are important but may need to be rearranged because of Student Support responsibilities or assignments. Student Support policies prohibit you from running for student office or holding any other volunteer positions during your time of service as a director. Exceptions to this policy must be approved in advance by the Director of Student Support.

7. Employment

Employment or potential employment should not interfere with your responsibilities as a director. By University policy you cannot hold a job on campus and serve as a Spirit Events Director. If you hold a job off-campus, you should not expect to work more than 10 hours per week.

8. Eligibility & Benefits
