Introduction

The study of religion is the core of academics at BYU-Idaho. It provides the basis for our very existence as one of the Lord’s universities, and every student is expected to make Religion classes an integral part of their studies.

Details showing the University requirements for Religion are shown in the University Requirements section in the front of this catalog or go online to the Religion home page and click on Graduation Requirements. To view the courses and the requirements they fill, click on the View Graphic link at the side of the chart.

A seminary Pre-Service program for prospective Seminary teachers is now offered. Interested students who are beginning their junior year at BYU-Idaho should take the Introduction to Teaching Seminary course, Religion 370. For more information, contact the Pre-Service Director at 496-1594 or 221-6171, or his secretary Kathy Baldwin at 496-1593.
