SCHOLARSHIPS AND AWARDS
Scholarships and awards provide incentives, assistance, and recognition outstanding student performance in many areas. Scholarships vary in amount and duration and are based upon individual achievement. International students are eligible for awards that meet quality for only after completing two full time periods of enrollment at BYU-Idaho. Scholarships are awarded in the following areas:

Awards of Excellence
Based on a combination of Academic (GPA, AP/IB classes if applicable, ACT or SAT), Leadership, Service, Out-of-Class Activities, Essays, Church, and Seminary. Each new freshman applying to Brigham Young University-Idaho will be considered for this scholarship. No scholarship application is required as students’ information is gleaned from the admissions application. These scholarships range from full LDS tuition plus $250 for books for two semesters to quarter tuition for two semesters. International students are not eligible for this award.

Continuing / Transfer Student Academic Awards
Awards vary up to full tuition. Academic performance is considered and reviewed by the Scholarship Committee. To be considered, students must have 30 semester hours completed. No application is needed. These awards are based upon cumulative GPA and credits earned.

Departmental awards/Talent Awards
These awards recognize outstanding achievement in a particular discipline. These awards are available from several departments in varying amounts. These awards require application materials obtained by contacting the individual departments. Contact information for each department is available at www.byui.edu/Admissions/scholarships.

Heber J. Grant Scholarship

This scholarship is for students who have shown merit through overcoming difficult circumstances in preparing themselves for higher education. Other meritorious acts such as participation in leadership or service activities may also be considered.

Those who have overcome disadvantaged backgrounds are encouraged to apply for this one-semester scholarship. Some factors that may be considered could include:

- Your total family income has been low over time
- You were raised by one parent
- Your parents did not graduate from college
- You are a recent convert to the Church
- Your parents are not Church members
- Your parents do not support your involvement in the Church

Students may apply for this scholarship more than once; however, each award is a one-semester scholarship. Those who wish to receive it more than once will need to apply every semester. The Heber J. Grant scholarship application is available at www.byui.edu/heberjgrant.

FOR ADDITIONAL INFORMATION please call (208) 496-1130.

STUDENT EMPLOYMENT

Over 2,000 student jobs are available each semester on campus, and there are many additional opportunities off campus in Rexburg, Idaho Falls, and surrounding communities. BYU-Idaho advertises employment opportunities online at www.byui.edu/employment and on a job board located outside Kimball 240.

Successful applicants generally have 1) an available 3-4 hour block of time, and 2) a willingness to accept any type of job and work any hours. Such applicants also present themselves professionally in demeanor and clothing, and on resume.

Requirements to Work On-Campus:

Students are eligible for on-campus employment if they are admitted into one of the three tracks as a full-time, matriculating, day-time student (regarded for at least 12 credits or an equivalent credit load per block). Students are limited to work a maximum of 20 hours per week on campus while school is in session.

Job Application Procedures:

Students should follow the application instructions located on each job posting.

Employment Pamphlet (IMPRINT)

Federal government regulations require proof of identity and eligibility to work in the United States. The following forms of I.D. are most commonly used for this purpose:

- U.S. passport OR
- Social Security Card
- State or Federal ID
- Certificate of U.S. Citizenship

One document each from the following two lists:

LIST A
- Social Security Card
- Birth Certificate
- Certificate of U.S. Citizenship

LIST B
- Photo I.D.
- Driver’s License
- U.S. passport

All documents must be original. Laminated cards, copies, and faxes are not acceptable. For a list of other appropriate I.D., visit the employment website listed above.

International students must show the Human Resources office forms I-20 and I-94 or other applicable documentation that verifies their eligibility to work in the U.S. They must immediately apply for a social security card upon receiving a job offer (see the Human Resources office or International Students office for instructions on how to apply for a card).

The Human Resources office is located in Kimball 240. For assistance please call (208) 496-1130.
