Heber J. Grant Program
The Heber J. Grant Program focuses on teaching the following core principles:

- Stewardship
- Self-reliance
- Sacrifice

These principles are emphasized through several campus offerings, including workshops, on-line tutorials, and financial counseling, among other things. Participation in this program will provide the following:

- An increased awareness of the importance of one’s financial stewardship
- Necessary skills and resources needed to achieve financial security
- Preparation for financial responsibilities as citizens, parents and church leaders

For more information, you can email us at scholarships@byui.edu.

Student Support Services
Brigham Young University–Idaho 2012-2013

STUDENT EMPLOYMENT
On-campus student jobs are available each semester and also during the summer session. Job opportunities can be found online at www.byui.edu/studentemployment. The Student Employment Web page contains information about the job application process, required identification, wages and other frequently asked questions.

Additional job opportunities for students can be found off campus in Rexburg, Idaho Falls and surrounding communities.

Requirements to Work on Campus
Students are eligible for on-campus employment if they are taking 12 credits or more (or an equivalent credit load per block). Students are limited to work a maximum of 20 hours per week on campus while school is in session.

Job Application Procedures
Students should follow the application instructions located at the bottom of each job posting. Resumes are required for most jobs and students are encouraged to dress professionally when applying for jobs.

Employment Paperwork
Federal government regulations require proof of identity and eligibility to work in the United States. All documents must be original. Laminated cards, copies and faxes are not acceptable. For a complete list of appropriate I.D., visit the employment Web site listed above.

Student employment questions can be directed to the Human Resources office located in Kimball 240, phone 496-1700 or at humanresources@byui.edu.

HOUSING
Single-student Approved Housing
All single students under the age of 30 must live in approved housing unless they live at home with their parents. Only admitted students are eligible to live in approved housing beginning in their first assigned semester. Individuals enrolled in Continuing Education who are not admitted to a track are not eligible to live in approved housing. Students who wish to live with a relative must receive an exception from the Housing and Student Living Office to live outside of approved housing. Exceptions are granted on a case-by-case basis and do not constitute an approval of the dwelling, but rather temporary approval of the living situation for the student. Exceptions are time-bound and may be withdrawn at any time. Those whose spouse has passed away or are divorced must receive an exception from the Housing and Student Living Office to live in Approved Housing. Failure to comply with approved housing guidelines will result in a hold being placed on the student record. This hold may prevent a student from registering for classes, release a student from current classes, or prevent a student from acquiring transcripts.

Individuals in the following categories must seek housing in the community market: (a) those who have not been admitted as BYU-Idaho students; (b) students who have been suspended for an Honor Code violation; (c) students on academic suspension; and (d) single students with children. All students living off campus must provide the university with their current local street address while enrolled at BYU-Idaho. Students giving a false address are in violation of the Honor Code and subject to disciplinary action through the Student Honor Office, which may include suspension.

Student Living
Outside the home, the apartment represents the most natural and effective place for you to practice living according to the teachings of the Savior. Your genuine efforts to love and respect roommates, take responsibility for the culture within your apartment and throughout the complex, and honor the commitments you have made while helping others do the same will contribute to a spirit of unity, account- ability, and integrity in the apartment. Student Living at BYU-Idaho is, in essence, a pattern for gospel-centered living reflective of Zion.